NO. 33

Once again the weather has been very unkind to the progress of our team. On Friday one by one all the games except the 1st year cup tie were called off. This was most disturbing especially as the games against SFX and Gateacre had only been arranged after much telephoning. Mr. Mockler turned out in appalling conditions but it was not to be fog and frost won the day. Now for some statistics.

MR COOKE'S ADVICE TO MR MOCKLER

The wife knitted it. She always worries about me 'catching cold'!

HMS. INVINCIBLE.

Carrying anti-submarine helicopters or VSTOL (vertical take off) aircraft. Such as the harrier. The ship will carry the Sea Dart and Exocet missile systems.

Well lets see how your fleet is standing up to my bombardment. My recce planes tell me that there is much enemy activity in the South East. So stand by.

OF NAVAL ORIGIN

Each week an explanation of 3 naval terms.

"To take the can back" Common slang expression meaning to be blamed for the acts or faults of another. The expression may have arisen from the custom in some dockyards of employing a boy to fetch beer from a local public house; this boy was invariably blamed if accounts were unpaid or cans not returned.

"Swing the lead" Naval slang for to malingering. Derived from the leadsman in the chains going through the motions of taking soundings without actually sounding.

"Round the bend" General naval slang for "half witted".
More next week.

SWAP SHOP

If sufficient interest is shown I shall include a new column in the next edition. Something like the TV. programme which I believe is on Saturday mornings.

Anyone who wishes to swap any article bring details to MR. Cooke in room 33. I can then include the information in number 34.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE GAME BY MR. COOKE.

Right eyes down look in. Before I start I should like to stress that all these methods of working out results are Formulated "off the cuff" so to speak. No bias towards Cooketown Rovers is taken.

Here is the First code.

B C D F G H J K L M N P Q R S T V W X Y Z
1 2 3 4 5 1 2 3 4 5 1 2 3 4 5 1 2 3 4 5 1

Write down Your full name. eg. Richard John Cooke.

Cross out all vowels eg. R-ch-rd J-hn C--K-

Using the code work out your next results by taking every 2 letters in order. R C H R D J H N C K (ignore any letter left on its own at the end.)
4 2 1 4 3 2 1 1 2 3

Therefore my results are 4 2 win 1 4 lose 3 2 win 1 1 draw 2 3 lose.

NOW Add up the numbers representing each letter in your Full name counting each vowel as 1

RICHARD JOHN COOKE

4 1 2 1 1 4 3 2 1 1 1 2 1 1 3 1 = 29 Oh dear. My Next result is 2-9 defeat.

NOW Take the month of your birth. OCTOBER

With the vowels counting as 1 add up the total 1 2 1 1 1 1 4 = 11

Take the name of the road, Street, avenue, Flats that you live in and do the same.

LUNT = 7
4 1 1 1

You now have 11-7. Now that would be an unrealistic score even for our 1st XI or 1st Years so divide each number by 3. Eg. $11 \div 3 = 3.66$ rounded up to 4

$7 \div 3 = 2.33$ rounded down to 2. So my next

Result is 4-2 win. Now let me list all my scores so far here they are.

FOR AGAINST.

Next week I shall ask to declare their records.

How are you all doing?

ONLY ONE ENTRY EACH. PRIZE FOR WINNER.

GOOD LUCK

The Editor now realises that last weeks quiz was almost impossible to Judge. The reason was that a lot of names that could be footballers were found by boys although these names were not in my original list. I originally listed 56 names—some managed to find 66 names. This week I have kept this problem in mind. I shall allow anyone within 5 greater than my total to win.

Hidden in here are some football teams. What You have to do is find them. Then You have to write down on a piece of paper Any Post war cup Finals (F.A. Cup) involving any of these teams. To sum up—the winner is the boy who gives me a list—with scores — of cup Finals in which any team found above has played since the 2nd World War.
